TEAGUE AUTO GROUP OF EL DORADO, ARKANSAS

(Mr. COTTON asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. COTTON. Mr. Speaker, today I recognize Jeff Teague, president of the Teague Auto Group in El Dorado, Arkansas, who was recently named Time magazine's Auto Dealer of the Year. Awarded annually, this award recognizes the auto dealer who demonstrates exceptional business performance and distinguished community service.

Jeff and his father opened their first dealership as partners 33 years ago in Walnut Ridge, Arkansas. Through hard work and determination, they built their dealership into a thriving family business.

But more than a businessman, Jeff is also a dedicated member of the El Dorado community. He is involved with Arkansas Baptist Children's Homes and Family Ministries, the Main Street El Dorado Music Festival, Union County 4-H, the Salvation Army, the South Arkansas Historical Foundation, and the Boys and Girls Club of El Dorado.

I want to offer Jeff and his family my congratulations on this honor and thank him for all he does for the community of El Dorado.

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF JOHN ROGERS, SR., AND BLACK HISTORY MONTH

He went on to attend the University of Chicago's Law School on the GI Bill and served for 21 years as a Cook County juvenile court judge. He was known as much for his compassion as he was for his conviction, and believed as much in giving second chances as he did in doing things right the first time.

Mr. Rogers was a great leader and role model. He passed away last month at the age of 95, but he leaves behind a
